STUDENT SEMINARS

Name of the student: P, Nandini

Class : IIIB.A {EHP}

Topic : Rajaram Mohan Roy

OBJECTIVES: Every presentation has its own defined objectives depending on the topic, scope of the presentation, the audience profile, time allocated for the actual presentation, and other factors. Above that, all presentations should have these four important key objectives as a part of the overall objectives.

Seminars help you to improve your knowledge and get updated to the latest technological developments.

Outcomes

Students will develop persuasive speech, present information in a compelling, well-structured, and logical sequence, respond respectfully to opposing ideas, show depth of knowledge of complex subjects, and develop their ability to synthesize, evaluate and reflect on information.

Brief Report: Raja Ram Mohan Roy is called the father of the modern Indian Renaissance due to the remarkable changes he instituted in 18th and 19th century India. The most noticeable of his actions was the removal of the cruel and barbaric Sati Pratha.. He was known for his efforts to abolish the practices of sati and child marriage. Roy is considered to be the "Father of Indian Renaissance" by many historians. Roy lived in the era of freedom fighters and revolutionaries. Publicly, he never demanded independence for India, but still, he fought for the civil rights of the Indians and opposed the racial superiority of Europeans.²

Activity: GROUP DISCUSSION

CLASS: II BA

TOPIC: IMPORTANCE OF MUSEUM

Objectives: objective of a group discussion is to evaluate certain attributes in a candidate that can be otherwise difficult or time consuming to ascertain. Panelists or evaluators in a group discussion will look out for communication skills.

Brief Report: Museums collect and preserve our objects and materials of religious, cultural and historical value. They are a good source of entertainment. These museums help to preserve and promote our cultural heritage. Museums are a storehouse of old artifacts, sculptures, objects, history etc. Museums help in research and study. A museum is a not-for-profit, permanent institution in the service of society that researches, collects, conserves, interprets and exhibits tangible and intangible heritage. Of the hoard of functions that museums played across the ages, let's look at five that continue to interest us today. These five functions would be: to collect, to organize (or classify), to display, to instruct its audience, and to project a sense of the nation.

Activity: Guest Lecturer

CLASS: BA

Topic: Tourism & Heritage

OUTCOMES

A guest speaker can perform a number of different roles. They can energize a crowd, inspire them, support the event themes, add value by sharing insider knowledge, offer a new perspective, break up the more routine aspects of the event and entertain.

OBJECTIVES:

In a guest lecture, students get new perspectives and opinions that are often missed in a regular class. A guest lecture gives students a better opportunity to learn about an explicit topic in a way that gets them involved in the class and actively join in a more convenient way of teaching.

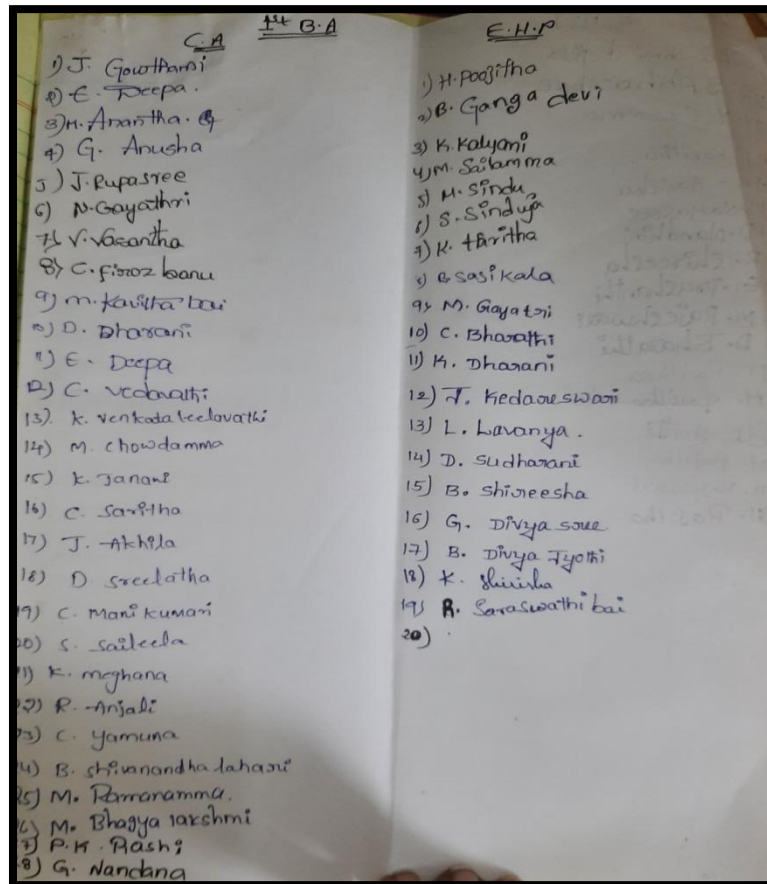

Brief Report: Definition and key concepts. Cultural heritage management is about striking a balance between developing the tourism industry, generate revenue while still conserving the physical integrity of sites, promoting and celebrating their educational, historic and cultural values. Why Cultural tourism is significant in India? Tourists travel to India to experience it for themselves because of the country's well-known rich cultural legacy and mysticism. Some of the most important civilizations and faiths in the world have their roots in India and were nurtured there. Tourism comprises the activities of persons travelling to and staying in places outside their usual environment for not more than one consecutive year for leisure, business and other purposes not related to the exercise of an activity remunerated from within the place visited. Humayun's Tomb is one of the most popular heritage tourist destinations in India. It's the first garden tomb ever built on Indian subcontinent. Several architectural innovations like Taj Mahal are inspired by this masterpiece.

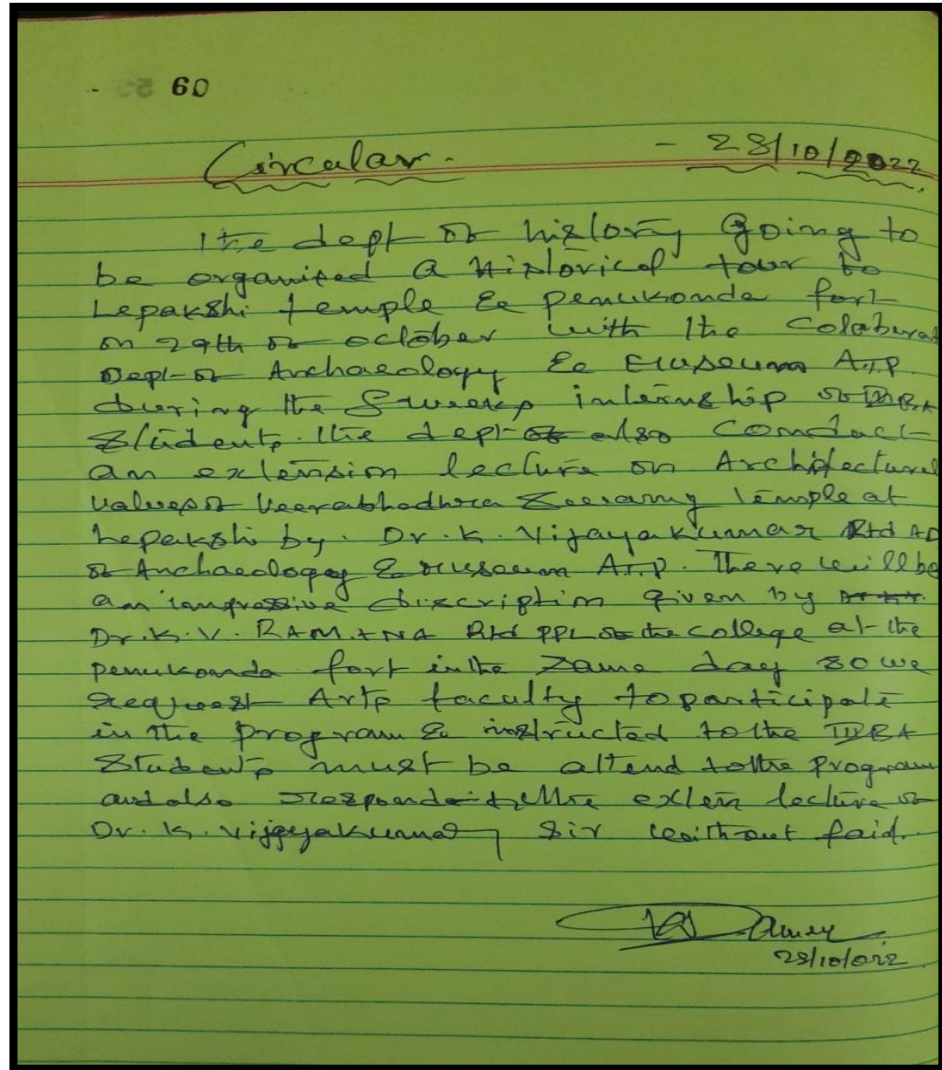

Students Feedback: Students are very impressive and Interactive with Guest Lecturer regarding Tourism in Andhra Pradesh.

Teachers' Observation:

It is observed that all the students must attended the Program Guest Lecturer Tourism & Heritage by Smt.k.Rajitha ,(Assistant Director in Archaeology , Ananthapur. She clarified many doubts of students regarding the Tourism in Ananthapuram.

Brief Report: Andhra Pradesh Government has decided to observe Vardhanthi of Amarajeevi Sri Potti Sriramulu state function on 15th December every year. Indian revolutionary, Potti Sriramulu was born in 1901 to Guravayya and Mahalakshamma in Padamatapalli, Nellore district. He became famous for undertaking a hunger strike for 56 days in support of having a separate state for Andhra Pradesh, he died in the process.

Sriramulu took part in the Indian Independence Movement and was imprisoned for participating in the 1930 Salt Satyagraha. Between 1941 and 1942, he participated in the individual satyagraha and the Quit India movement and was imprisoned on three occasions. He was a devout follower, avid supporter, and devotee of Mahatma Gandhi. He also joined the Gandhi Ashram established by Yerneni Subrahmanyam, in Komaravolu, Krishna District.

He undertook three fasts, during 1946-1948, in support of Dalit (a heterogeneous group of oppressed Hindu castes then referred to by Gandhi and his supporters by the contentious, though well-intentioned, term Harijan) rights to enter holy places, such as the temples of Nellore. He fasted in support of Dalit entry rights to the Venu Gopala Swamy Temple in Moolapeta, Nellore, rights which were eventually secured. He again fasted to receive favorable orders, passed by the Madras government, to further uplift the Dalit community.

Commenting on Sriramulu's dedication and fasting ability, Mahatma Gandhi once said, "If only I have eleven more followers like Sriramulu I will win freedom from British rule in a year."

Students Feedback:

The students observed very interest recording the program.

It is also very impressive program for the BA students.
