

Department of English
Activities: Academic Year 2022-23
Submission of AQAR of Academic Year 2020-21 on 23-7-2022

The Annual Quality Assurance Report pertaining to the Academic Year 2020-21 was submitted to NAAC on 23-7-2022. The department of English contributed to the entire process of documentation.

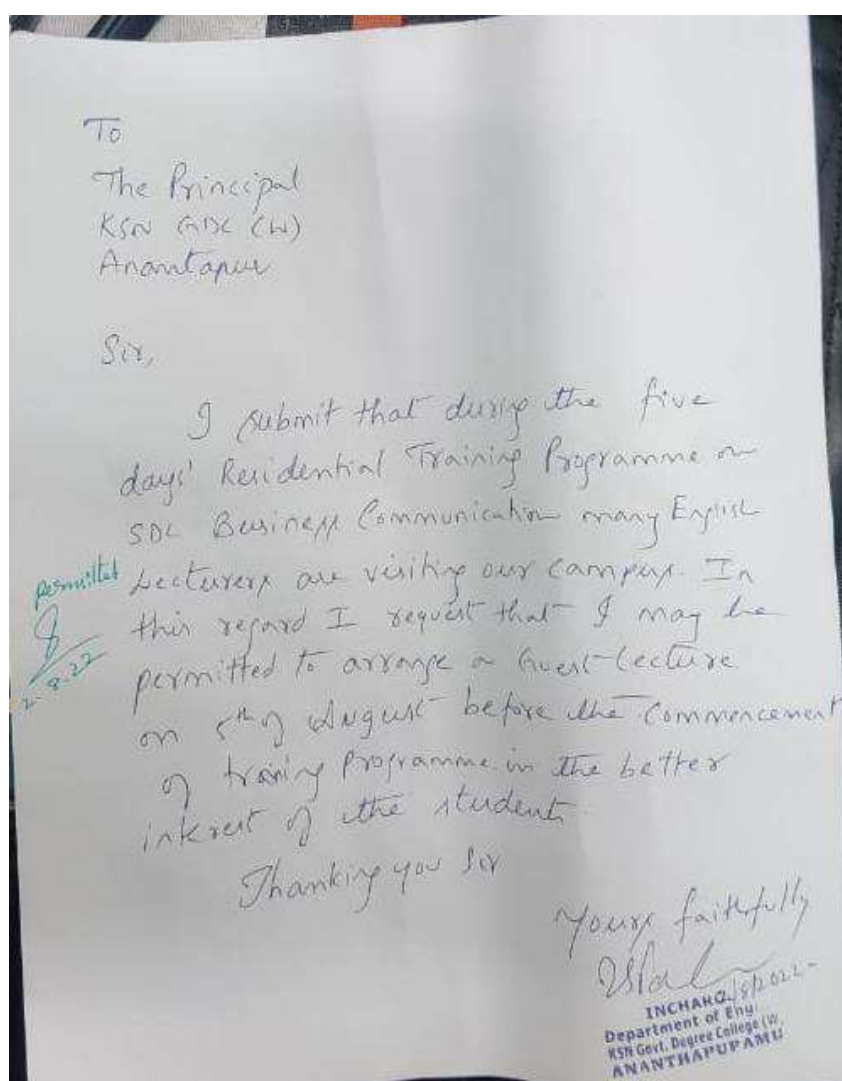

Guest Lecture

Organized by Department of English: 5-8-2022

Minutes of the Meeting:

- The faculty of the department of English convened a departmental meeting on 2nd of August and resolved to organize a Guest Lecture during the ToT Programme on Business Communication either before or after the training hours.

Permission Letter:

Circular:

- The students of II semester BCom were informed through Public Address System that all of them should report to college by 8:30 AM on 5th of August as a Guest Lecture had been planned for them.

Class: B.Com Second Semester

No.ofStudentParticipants:22

Objectives:

- To expose the students to diverse learning experience
- To help the students listen to the topic from a different teacher
 - Helping the students revise the already covered topic
 - Seeking clarifications if any

Brief Report:

The Department of English organized a Guest Lecture utilizing the presence of various Lecturers in English who visited our college to attend a Five Day Faculty Induction Programme on Business Communication. As the training commences at 10 AM the department arranged for the lecture from 8:30 AM till 9:30 AM on 5th of August. Dr. M.V Sulochana, Lecturer in English of Government Degree College, Pourmamilla delivered a Guest Lecture on the topic, Collocations

Geo Tagged Photo:

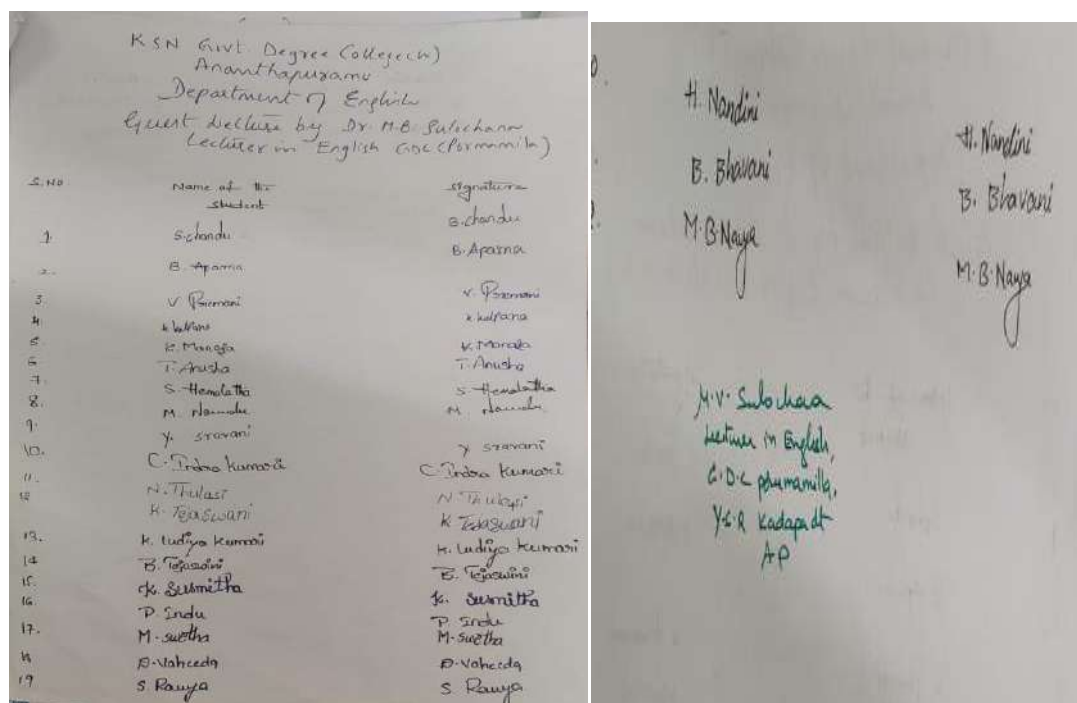

Student' Feedback:

Students who attended the Guest Lecture gave positive feedback on the activity and said that the lecture enhanced their knowledge of the topic and refreshed what they had learnt in the classroom. They got some of their doubts clarified too.

Teacher's Observations:

It is observed that all the students who attended the lecture were excited to have an opportunity to listen to a new teacher with a different teaching style and strategy. The invited lecturer gave most of the interested students an opportunity to add to a list of collocations she first explained. Students gradually got fully involved and contributed to the list thereby adding to each other's vocabulary.

Signature of the Participants:

Outcomes

- Students listened to the lecture on collocations
- They had a revision of the topic
- Students noted down different new examples
- They got an opportunity to interact with the resource person and seek clarifications on the topic
- The Guest Lecture opened new avenues of knowledge and ignited the research temperament among the learners

Mapping of Outcomes:

The activity helped the department attain a course outcome which enabled the learners to apply the acquired knowledge of vocabulary, usage in sentence structure and functional grammar for developing their oral and written communication skills

Coordinating the Faculty Development Programme on Solar Energy
10-8-2022 to 14-8-2022

Faculty Development Programme on Solar Energy was organized in KSN College in collaboration with the Commissionerate of Collegiate Education. Smt J. Saiqua Parveen, Lecturer in English acted as Coordinator for the programme and prepared and submitted a detailed report to CCE after the completion of 5 days' training.

Group Discussion Activity: 22-8-2022

Minutes of the Meeting:

- The faculty of the department of English convened a departmental meeting on 2nd of August and resolved to engage students in language activities in the classrooms.

Circular:

- The students of I Semester B.Com were informed that all of them should prepare for a Group Discussion to be conducted in the classroom.

Class:B.Com First Semester

No. of Student Participants: 31

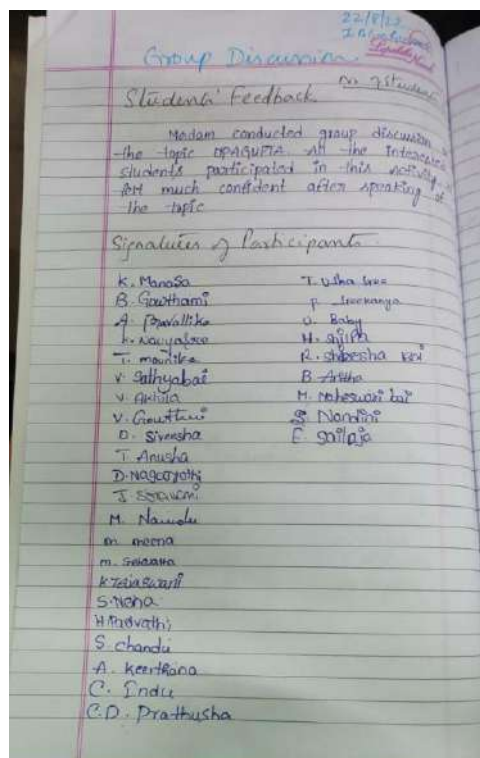

Objectives:

- To create a better awareness about the topic
- To inculcate self confidence among the students
- To improve communication skills in English

Brief Report:

The students of first semester B.Com were engaged in Group Discussion on the topic Upagupta. They were formed into groups of five and six. They discussed among themselves the character of Upagupta, the theme of the poem and the short lived nature of material assets.

Geo Tagged Photo:

Student' Feedback and Signatures of the Participants:

Teacher's Observations

The students actively participated in the group discussion. Some of them tried to speak out their thoughts in Telugu. They were encouraged to use target language English too, irrespective of the unintentional errors they make.

Outcomes:

Students got a better understanding of the topic by expressing their original views on that. The activity also helped the students shun their inhibitions and involve wholeheartedly along with their classmates.

Mapping of Outcomes:

The activity helped the department attain a course outcome which enabled the learners to apply the acquired knowledge of topic, framing sentence structure and utilizing functional grammar for developing their oral communication skills.

NAAC Counselling Offered to IQAC Team, GDC Yemmiganur, Kurnool District

Principal and IQAC Team of Government Degree College, Yemmiganur, Kurnool District visited our college on 16-9-2022. They went through all the academic records prepared by departments and IQAC and got their queries clarified. They were given guidance about how to update and maintain records and prepare and submit the qualitative and quantitative data in the required NAAC formats.

Coordinating the Faculty Development Programme on Retailing from 2-11-2022 to 6-11-2022

NAAC Counselling Offered to IQAC Team, GDC Nandyal, Kurnool District

Principal and IQAC Team of Government Degree College, Nandyal, Kurnool District visited our college on 21-1-2023. They went through all the academic records prepared by departments and IQAC and got their queries clarified. They were given guidance about how to update and maintain records and prepare and submit the qualitative and quantitative data in the required NAAC formats.

Guest Lecture: 21-1-2023

Minutes of the Meeting:

➤ The faculty of the department of English convened a departmental meeting on 5th of December and resolved to organize a Guest Lecture during the month of January.

Permission Letter:

To
The Principal
KSN GDC(W)
Anantapur

Anantapur
18/1/2023

Sir,

This is to bring to your kind notice that as per the telephonic conversation, the Principal and IQAC Team of GDC Nandyal are visiting our college on 21/1/23 for seeking NAAC counselling. In this regard I request that the Department of English be permitted to engage a Guest Lecture through Smt. Parvathi, Lecturer in English of GDC Nandyal.

Thanking you Sir,

Yours faithfully
Usha
18/1/2023.
(J.S. Parveen)

INCHARGE
Department of English.
KSN Govt. Degree College (W)
ANANTHAPURAM

Circular:

➤ The students of I Semester BA EHP and EHJ were informed through Public Address System that all of them should attend a guest lecture arranged in ELL Lab at 4 pm on 21-1-2023

Class: BA First Semester

No. of Student Participants:

18

Objectives:

- To expose the students to diverse learning experience
- To help the students listen to the topic from a different teacher
- Helping the students revise the already covered topic
- Seeking clarifications if any

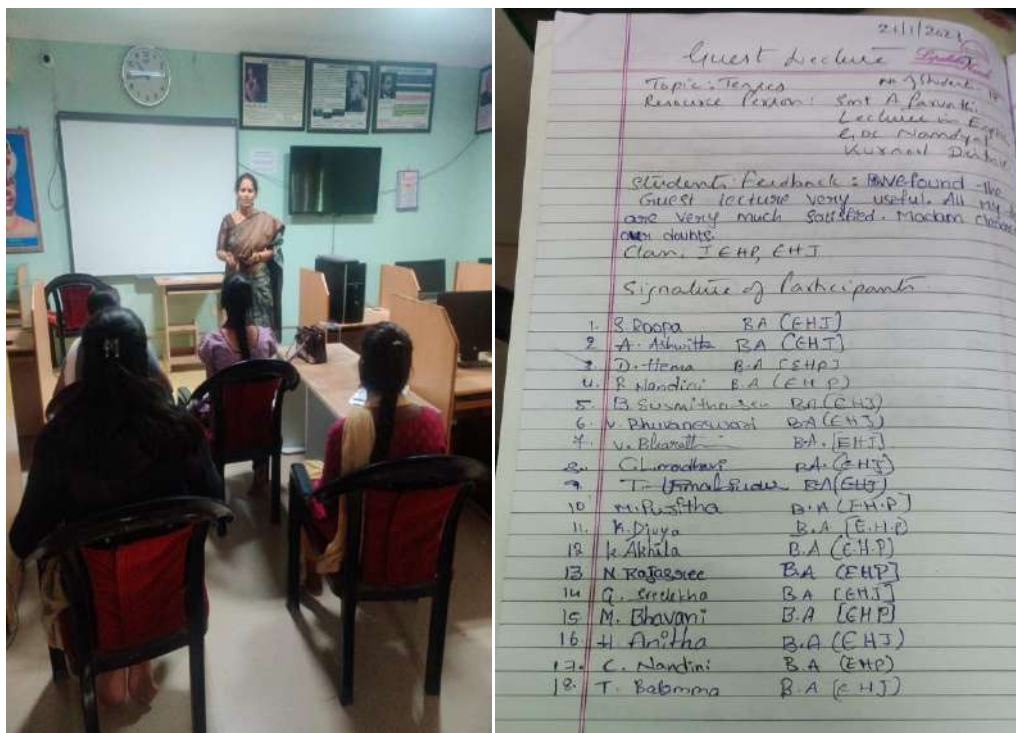

Brief Report:

Smt. Parvathi, Lecturer in English of Government Degree College, Nandyal delivered a lecture on types of listening such as active listening, passive listening, empathetic listening, marginal listening, creative listening and so on. She also engaged the students in an interaction and invited their opinions on various barriers to effective listening. Students actively participated in the activity and responded to the questions and also raised queries and got them clarified.

Teacher's Observations

All the students who attended the lecture were excited to have an opportunity to listen to a new teacher with a different teaching style and strategy. The invited lecturer delivered a lecture on Types of Listening. Students gradually got fully involved and contributed to the types of listening and barriers to effective listening thereby adding to each other's knowledge.

Photo:

Student' Feedback and Signatures of the Participants:

Outcomes:

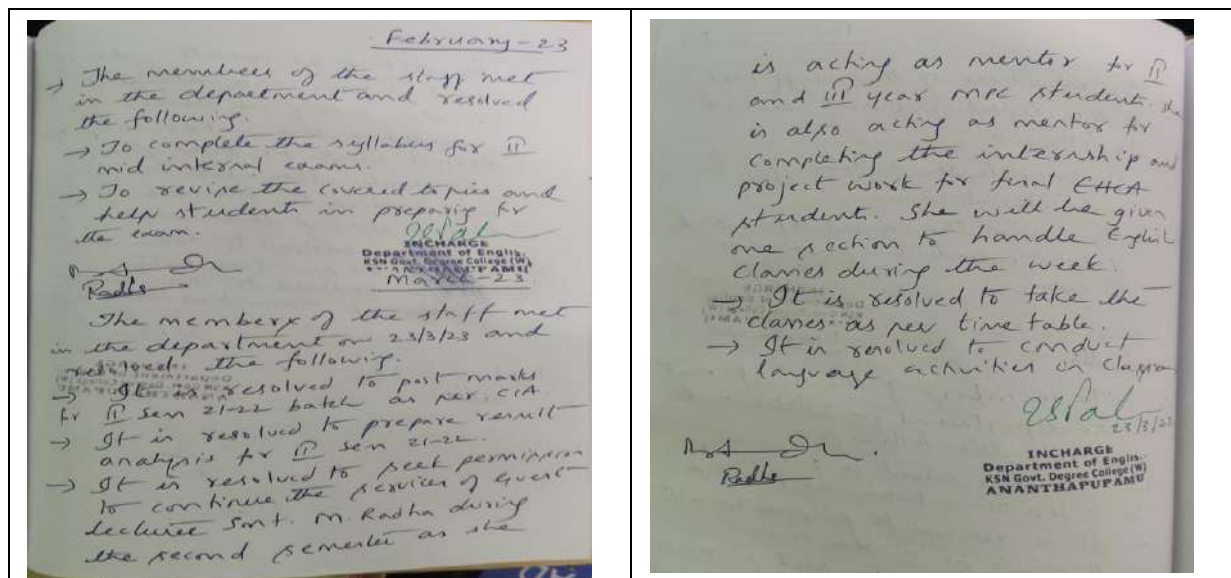

- Students listened to the lecture on Types of Listening
- They had a revision of the topic
- Students noted down different types of listening
- They got an opportunity to interact with the resource person and seek clarifications on the topic
- The Guest Lecture opened new avenues of knowledge and ignited the research temperament among the learners

Mapping of Outcomes:

The activity helped the department attain a course outcome which enabled the learners to apply the acquired knowledge of vocabulary, usage in sentence structure and functional grammar for developing their oral and written communication skills

Language Activity: Catch the Ball: 28-3-2023

Minutes of the Meeting:

Class: B.Com Second Semester

No. of Student Participants: 09

Objectives:

The objective of the activity is to familiarize the students with the topics prescribed in the syllabus while identifying the names of the authors and poets.

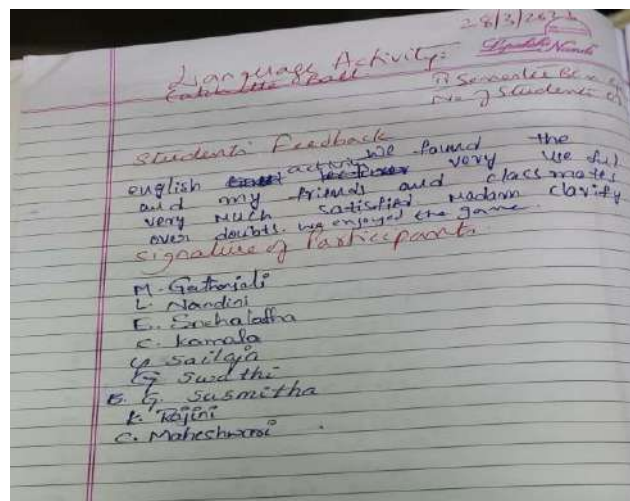

Brief Report:

The students were first asked to practice the names and spelling of the prescribed short stories, essays and poems. Later they were made to stand in a circle facing one another. A student throws one to another student and asks one question. The student who catches the ball has to answer the question correctly and pass on the ball to someone else with her own question. The game continues until only one player is left in the circle.

Geo Tagged Photo:

Student' Feedback and Signatures of the Participants:

Teacher's Observations

It is observed that all the participants actively participated in the activity. This helped them identify the names of the authors, poets and their written essays, short stories and poems in a stress-free playful way. This helped the students not only gain confidence but also improve their pronunciation.

Outcomes:

- All the students actively participated in the activity.
- This helped them identify the names of the authors, poets and their written essays, short stories and poems in a stress-free playful way.
- This helped the students not only gain confidence but also improve their pronunciation.

Mapping of Outcomes:

- This language activity helped us attain the course outcome of improving LSRW skills as the students could listen, write down the names of the topics and authors, read them accordingly and pronounce them correctly.

Celebration of English Language Day: 24-4-2023

Minutes of the Meeting:

A meeting was convened in the department and it was resolved to celebrate the English Language Day on 24-4-2023.

Permission Letter:

To
The Principal
KSN GOC (W)
Anantapur

Anantapur
21/4/2023

Sir,

I would like to submit that it is Shakespeare's Birthday on 23/4/2023 which is celebrated as English Language Day. However as it happens to be a Sunday, the Department of English has resolved to celebrate the day on 24/4/2023. In this regard I request that we may be permitted to invite Sri J.S. Lakshmi Rangaiah, Retired Principal, GOC Tadipatri as Resource Person to create awareness among the students.

Thanking you Sir

Yours Faithfully
J.S. Lakshmi Rangaiah
INCHARGE
Department of English,
KSN Govt. Degree College (W)
ANANTHAPUR

Circular:

All the second semester students were informed through Public Address System to assemble in the Auditorium by 12 pm to celebrate the English Language Day.

No of Student Participants: 300

Objectives:

To inculcate an appreciation of English literature

Brief Report:

All the students of second semester were assembled in the Auditorium during the last instruction hour. The programme was presided over by the Vice Principal, Sri. S. Lakshmi Rangaiah. The Vice Principal, IQAC Coordinator and Head of the Department of English, Smt. J. Saiqua Parveen and Smt. B. Anuradha, Lecturer in English gave their messages on the occasion. Later the Resource Person and Chief Guest, Sri. J.S Imtiaz Ahmed spoke about the significance of the occasion and highlighted the greatness of Shakespeare as the most prominent and most read dramatist of English literature. He elaborated upon the important plays of Shakespeare such as A Mid-Summer Night's Dream, The Merchant of Venice and As You Like It thereby inculcating a love of reading among the students. The programme came to a close with the vote of thanks and felicitation to the Chief Guest.

Geo Tagged Photo

Student' Feedback:

All the students expressed their deep sense of satisfaction with the programme. One student of BA EHCA, Hiranmayee expressed feedback on all the students' behalf and thanked the Resource Person for his valuable message.

Teacher's Observations:

It is observed that the participants were benefited by the programme. They inculcated a love of learning and appreciated the dramatic greatness of Shakespeare as playwright. The programme was a great success as all the students appreciated the valuable message given by the Chief Guest.

Outcomes:

Students appreciated the greatness of English literature

Mapping of Outcomes:

The programme achieved the desired outcome of familiarizing the students with the stalwarts of English literature and exposed them to the writing style, themes and message of the great British Playwright William Shakespeare.

Inauguration of Add-On Course in Communication Skills: 24-4-2023

